Enchanting Rustic Details 12 Minutes to Hwy 280

Live in serenity, surrounded by woodland majesty. Whether you are a full time resident or a weekend retreat, this unique home is 12 minutes to Hwy 280 and less than a mile to the Woodside's historic Four Corners. This romantic log cabin and additional spectacular two story treehouse are imbued with rustic ambiance, finished with craftsman woodwork and replete with copious built-in storage, river rock fireplace and vaulted and beamed ceilings. With an entertainer's kitchen, it is rich with unique artistic accents like a copper bathtub, leaded glass windows, skylights and a dramatic solarium conservatory with ceilings and walls of glass.

Nestled overlooking .7 acres of creek-side woodland, there are pathways, cantilevered patios, decks and terraces that capture this serene setting. Down a private country lane with only 5 unique homes, this retreat is why Woodside's Skyline ridge is a peaceful refuge while still central to Silicon Valley's every advantage.
